

Exhibit of
The Mint of the United States at ~~Philadelphia~~, ~~Superintendent's Office,~~

Chicago July 14 1893.

Col. O. C. Rosbyschell
Supt. U. S. Mint Phila

Dear Sir.

Dollar stake for no 6 reached here this noon and will go into service as soon as we get blanks which are expected tomorrow.

Every thing here is O.K with the weather red hot.

How are you and all at the U. S. M.
it has been so long since I have rec'd any general news from you that it seems as if we were at the other end of the world.

All join me in sending kindest
regards to you and all.

Very Respectfully W. S. Beckley

P.S. Tell Ellie. I was introduced to Miss Thannie
Thompson who was one of Misses Brinkman's on 8. 13.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 182

Exhibit of The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, ~~Superintendent's Office,~~
Chicago,
July 14, 1893

Col. O.C. Bosbyshell
Supt. U.S. Mint, Phila.

Dear Sir

Dollar stake for no 6 reached here this noon and will go into service as soon as we get blanks which are expected tomorrow.

Every thing here is O.K. with the weather red hot.

How are you and all at the U.S.M. it has been so long since I have received any general news from you that it seems as if we were at the other end of the world.

All join me in sending kindest regards to you and all.

Very Respectfully,
N.S. Beekley

P.S. Tell Ollie I was introduced to wife Fannie Thompson who was one of Minnie's bridesmaids.